Second read- both the teacher and child read together some of the new words (particularly those repeated throughout the story) should now be familiar and this read should be less choppy and broken.

Hold a sentence

Rehearsing a sentence before writing helps a child remember what they want to write. Early writers are bogged down with spelling as they write. This rehearsal (the sillier the better) helps recall as they go back over what is written so far and needs to come next.
